Introduction to LaTeX

Bodike Chaithali
B24CS013

September 11, 2025

Q1

Abstract

An abstract reflecting on the role of LATEX in research writing ...

1 Introduction

This is an introductory section.

2 Methods

This is an methods section.

2.1 Data Collection

This is an Data Collection SubSection in Methods section.

2.2 Analysis

This is an Analysis SubSection in Methods section.

3 Conclusion

This is an conclusion section.

Q2

This line refers to the "Key Formula" by the equation number as ... 1

Euler's equation is :

$$e^{i\pi} + 1 = 0 \tag{1}$$

Q3

Student	Math	Physics	CS
Alice	99	98	97
Bob	95	97	99
Charlie	99	93	100

Q4

Input: integer n
if $n > 0$ then print "Positive" else if $n < 0$ then print "Negative"
else
  print "Zero" end if

Q5

An 1st one Knuth [1984] and the 2nd one [Lamport, 1994] .

References

Donald E. Knuth. The TeXbook. Addison-Wesley, Reading, MA, 1984.

Leslie Lamport. Latex: A document preparation system. Addison-Wesley Series on Tools and Techniques for Computer Typesetting, 2:1–272, 1994.